

Angel of Light

by Surabhi Dave, 2018

Acrylic on Canvas – 48" x 30"

Children perceive life and beyond in its purest form. They do not question—they just know.

The day after the funeral of my husband, Deepak, one of my 5-year-old students could not understand why I felt so sad, given that he could see my husband looking after me from the clouds above. My awe-inspiring student is the reason for this painting.

It represents pure, infinite 'light' and is painted in memory of loved ones that inspire and guide us forever.

We are offering limited edition ready to hang prints of the painting, and cards, as a fundraiser to honour Deepak. Your funds will help outcast, impoverished widows in India set up their own businesses, so that they can become self-sufficient, send their children to school and remove the unforgiving stigma of widowhood that they endure in their communities.

If you would like to order a limited edition print, or a set of cards, we invite you make a donation of at least 30 per cent of your cost to a foundation called Shantilife (charity status in Canada, USA, UK and India), website www.shantilife.org.

Donations can be made on the website and are eligible for tax receipts. Please mention that your donation is for the project to honour Deepak.
